I. Copyright Assignment

Copyright to the above paper is hereby jointly transferred to the Pedagogical University of Cracow and Wydawnictwo Uniwersytetu Pedagogicznego (for U.S. government employees: to the extent transferable), throughout the world, in any form, in any language, for the full term of copyright - which will become effective when the text is accepted for publication in the journal:

Studies of the Industrial Geography Commission of the Polish Geographical Society – Vol 30, No 4.

II. Authorship

It is implicitly assumed that all authors contributed to the same extent to the present article, in particular that no “ghostwriting” or “guest authorship” occurred. The publisher should be informed in writing if this is not a case.

III. Author’s Warranties

The author(s) warrants that the article:

- is original, written only by the above stated author(s),
- has not been published before,
- contains no unlawful statements,
- does not infringe the rights of others.

Moreover, any necessary written permissions to quote from other sources have been obtained by the author(s).

IV. Author(s) reserves the following rights:

- all proprietary rights other than copyright, such as patent rights,
- the right to grant or refuse permission to third parties to republish all or parts of the article or translations thereof (in the case where the entire article is republished, the third parties must also obtain Pedagogical University’s written permission),
- the right to use all or part of this article in their future works,
- in the case of a ‘work made for hire’, the employer and the authors may make copies of this article for their own use, but not for resale.

To be signed by the corresponding author or, in the case of a “work made for hire”, by the employer.
